DECREES

Art. 1

General characteristics of the cheque

No. 1 public selective procedure, based on qualifications and interview, is hereby announced for the award of no. 1 grant for collaboration in research activities (hereinafter referred to as “grant”) for the following project:

NO. 1 GRANT

DURATION: 22 months

TITLE OF THE AWARD: “Energy community markets for the development of inland and protected areas: Theories, models, and policies”;

PROJECT: PRIN22 UNderstandIng energy COmmunity maRkets for the development of inNer and protected areas (Acronym: UNICORN)” admitted for funding by Director’s Decree no. 967 of 30.06.2023;

SCIENTIFIC-DISCIPLINARY SECTOR: S.S.D. SECS-P/02 Political Economy;

SCIENTIFIC RESPONSIBLE OF THE RESEARCH PROJECT: Prof.ssa Caterina De Lucia;

TUTOR: Prof.ssa Caterina De Lucia;

HEADQUARTERS: Department of Economics, Management and Territory;

OVERALL GROSS AMOUNT OF THE GRANT: € 43.798,04 (on this amount all social security charges payable by the grantee and the Institution will be deducted in accordance with the regulations in force Law no. 183 of 12.11.2011, Law no. 81 of 22/05/2017 and INPS Circular no. 19 of 10/02/2023 and any subsequent amendments and additions);

The Grant will be charged to the National Research Programme Fund PNR, Director’s Decree no. 104 of 2 February 2022, Call PRIN 2022 – CUP D53D23006360006.

The interview should ascertain methodological and basic knowledge of the renewable energy market, inland and marginal areas, and the implementation of a socio-economic desk analysis at territorial level, as well as theoretical and quantitative knowledge. Furthermore, the interview will aim to ascertain knowledge of tools (e.g. questionnaires, focus groups, expert interviews) and participatory analysis (social network/stakeholder analysis) and energy policies.

Finally, the interview will have to ascertain knowledge of the English language for Italian and foreign candidates and of the Italian language for foreign candidates only.

Disbursement is closely linked to the realisation of the research project.

The project aims at the study and implementation of Renewable Energy Communities (RECs) in the Gargano territories (including inland and marginal areas), through

- 1) A socio-economic and energy market analysis;
- 2) Community participatory approach (surveys, focus groups, interviews with experts, analysis of social networks) to understand the needs and behaviour of the actors involved;
- 3) Theoretical and modelling analysis (random utility models and choice experiments) to better investigate manifest and latent behaviour of CERs;
- 4) Implications of energy and development policies as support for public decision-makers at all levels of governance.

Art. 2

Duration and Renewal of the Research Fellowship

The Research Fellowship has a duration of 22 months, and can be renewed. The overall duration, renewals included, cannot exceed 6 years; the period of prospective use overlapping with a PhD course, under the eligible limit of the relevant course legal length, is not included and contemplated. The fellowship cannot be held contemporarily with other fellowships of whatever kind, except those awarded by National or Foreign Institutions with the aim of integrating the fellowship holder's research activity with a stay period abroad.

The total duration of the fellowship, set up both as research fellowship holder and holder of contracts according to art.24 of Law no.240/20210, also signed with other Universities, be them Public, Private or Online, cannot in any case be higher than twelve years, even with interruptions.

Pursuant to the current regulations on the issue, the period of obligatory maternity leave or interruptions due to health reasons do not contribute to the comprehensive duration of the grant.

Art. 3

Fiscal, social security and insurance treatment

The Research Fellowship is imposed fiscal charges and social security measures, respectively according to Article 4 of Law no. 476 of 13 August 1984, and Article 2, comma 26 and subsequent amendments and additions, of Law no. 335 of 8 August 1995. As for maternity leave, the Research fellowship is applied what provided under the Decree of the Ministry of Labour of 12 July 2007, published on the Official Gazette no. 247 of 23 October 2007; as for the sick leave, the Research fellowship follows Article 1, comma 788, of Law no.296 of 27 December 2006, and further amendments. On maternity leave, the University of Foggia integrates compensation, up to the overall amount of the research fellowship, paid by the Italian National Institute for Social Security, according to Article 5 of the Ministerial Decree of 12 July 2007. The University of Foggia covers the Fellowship holder's costs related to liability and accident insurance while performing his/her research activity. The amount of the premiums is deducted from the Fellowship.

Art. 11

Tasks and evaluation

The fellowship holder's tasks are determined by the Council of the Department, responsible for the research activity whichwill be carried out by the fellowship holder under an individual contract, and are performed under the supervision of atutor appointed by art.12 of the University Regulations in matter of assignment of fellowships for collaboration in researchactivities.

The contract however provides that the fellowship holder is required to take part into research programmes, and that he/she assumes specific responsibilities while executing the relevant technical and scientific activities in close collaborationwith the teaching staff and researchers. Support to research on behalf of the fellowship holder will result to be not merelytechnical.

It being understood that the main tasks of the fellowship holder deal with the planned research activity, he/she could beentrusted didactic and scientific tutorial activities and a limited number of teaching hours, usually not more than 40 per year or per academic year, prior approval on behalf of the tutor and the Council of Department, and authorization by the Rector, with specific reference to the scientific and seminar activity, mainly related to the research activity conducted by the fellowship holder. The fellowship holder's tutor will write an annual report on the fellowship holder's performed activity. The tutor will submit this report to the Council of the relevant Department, which is expected to assess the due activity of collaboration. The Council of Department, after ascertaining regularity and commitment, can propose the University Rector to renew the fellowship. In the event of non-compliance, the Council of the relevant Department, after hearing the tutor, informs the Academic Senate who will eventually decide.

Art. 12

Incompatibility, rights and duties

On the whole contract duration, the fellowship holder can be authorized, following consent on behalf of the Council of Department and after consultation and approval from the Tutor, to perform professional activities on temporary and occasional basis, also as a subordinate employee, provided that such activities are not developed under a permanent contract, it being understood the compatibility of external activities with the tasks carried out as research fellowship holder.

The fellowship holder cannot obtain a degree course (master's course or single-cycle), a Ph.D. with grant or courses of medical specialization, either in Italy or abroad. A public administration employee is to be granted leave without being remunerated.

It being understood that a fellowship holder has research and its activities as main tasks, however he/she can stand as tutor in didactic and scientific activities, and be engaged in a limited number of teaching hours, usually not more than 40 hours per year or academic year, after getting favorable approval on behalf of the tutor, the Council of the Department and authorization by the Rector, with specific reference to the scientific and seminar activity, mainly dealing with the research activity carried out by the fellowship holder.

Art. 13

Contract termination

The Academic Senate can deliberate to terminate the contract, after hearing the relevant Department and the fellowship holder, when serious non-compliance towards contractual obligations occurs.

The contract is automatically terminated when one of the following conditions happens:

- unjustified suspension of the activity for a period of 15 days;
- serious violation of the incompatibility regime as for art.12 of the current call;
- negative assessment on the performed research activity, expressed by the Academic Senate on the basis of the Tutor's opinion, and by the Council of Department where the research activity is developed.

Art. 14

Termination and notice

In case of termination, the fellowship holder is required to give a 60 days' notice. If this fails, the Administration is entitled to hold an amount of money corresponding to the installment for the failed period of notice.

The term of notice as well as the amount of compensation can be reduced for cause or justified reason, on the fellowship holder's request, with resolution of the Council of the relevant Department.

Art. 15

Advertising

The current call is published on the electronic notice board of the University of Foggia, on the University website (www.unifg.it)- Research - Research Fellowship, on the MIUR website (<http://bandi.miur.it>) and on the EU website (<http://ec.europa.eu/euraxess>), with specific indication of the application deadline.

Art. 16

Official in charge of the administrative procedure

Under Law no. 241 of 7 August 1990 and subsequent amendments and additions to the same, the Person in charge of the selection procedure is Dr. Pierluigi Rossano Centola - Head of 'Unità Dottorati e Assegni di Ricerca'.

5. Third parties who process the data for institutional purposes;
6. Private companies, for recruitment purposes; in the event of profiling activities, they are required to inform the interested parties in advance.

Profiling and dissemination of data

Personal data will be processed anonymously for the fulfilment of publication obligations by law.

Rights of the interested party.

Among the rights recognized by the GDPR are those to:

1 Ask the University of Foggia to access personal data and relevant information; the correction of inaccurate data or the integration of incomplete data; the cancellation of personal data (upon the occurrence of one of the conditions indicated in article 17, paragraph 1 of the GDPR and in compliance with the exceptions provided for in paragraph 3 of the same article); the limitations on the processing of personal data (on the use of one of the hypotheses indicated in Article 18, paragraph 1 of the GDPR);

2 Request and obtain from the University of Foggia - in case of legal contract or consent, also by automated means – that personal data will be stored in an electronic format in order to communicate to another data controller (so- called right to the portability of personal data);

3 Oppose at any time the processing of personal data when particular situations occur, always in compliance with the exceptions provided for in the GDPR;

4 Withdraw consent at any time, limited to the cases in which the processing is based on consent, in compliance with the exceptions provided for in paragraph 3 of art. 17 of the GDPR, for one or more specific purposes, and concerns common personal data (for example date and place of birth or place of residence) or particular categories of data (for example data revealing racial origin, political opinions, convictions religious, health status or sex life). The use of data based on consent, also until approval is withdrawn, preserves, however, its legitimacy.

5 Right to lodge a complaint to a supervisory authority (Authority for the protection of personal data - www.garanteprivacy.it).

The undersigned _____ Tax Code _____ agrees that the University of Foggia adopts all the above-described measures for which consent represents the legal basis of the treatment of data. As such,

- I agree
- I do not agree
