

Curriculum Vitae

CATERINA TRICASE

Caterina Tricase is full professor at the University of Foggia, in the scientific area “Commodity Sciences” (SECS-P/13). She currently teaches Commodity Science and Commodities and Markets courses at the Department of Economics.

She is a member of the "Medical humanities and welfare" Doctorate board at the University of Foggia.

Furthermore, she is a member of the University Scientific Commission and President of the joint Teacher-Student Commission of the Department of Economics

She has taken part in numerous national and international projects and conferences. She is the author of more than 120 publications. As regards the research activity, these concern various topics such as:

Environmental assessment using Life Cycle Assessment and Carbon Footprint methodology;

Technological innovations (e.g. blockchain, artificial intelligence, internet of things, ICT) and their effects on economic sectors;

Measurement of flows of matter and energy (MFA).

Caterina Tricase is a member of several editorial boards and Guest Editor in several special issues of scientific journals. Finally, she is a member of the Accademia Italiana Scienze Merceologiche (AISME), of the International Society of Commodity Science and Technology (IGWT) and of the Italian association of the Life Cycle Assessment network.

Further information on the research topics and related publications and on its H index:

https://fair.unifg.it/handle/11369/317023/browse?filter_type=authority&authority=rp00698&filter_value=rp00698&filter_value_display=TRICASE%2c+CATERINA&type=author&sort_by=DESC&order=&rpp=20

<https://www.scopus.com/authid/detail.uri?authorId=24482751700>